visitors turned pale when they saw the bear, and then became sick when informed that Bruin was a part of the team. The bear marched into the hotel office as if he was used to that sort of treatment, while Manager Riser of the varsity team called upon Coach Conibear who, by the way is a biped, and no relation to the other bear—and asked for an explanation.

if he shows an inclination to become friendly.

The game this afternoon between Utah and Montana will be the first meeting of the two teams, and apparently they are evenly matched in regard to weight. Montana has wen the only game played this season against the Fort Missoula team, and fully expects to land a victory over the east benchers. The team will go out to Cummings field this morning and line up for signal practice.

The local aggregation is in far better condition than when they played Boulder two weeks ago, and both Manager Riser and Coach Maddock expect to start a long string of victories with this afternoon's game. The game is called for 3:30 o clock.

OFF FOR COAST TRIP CHAMPION CHAUFFEUR

Champion Aggies Start Coming Week on Vigorous Football Campaign.

(Special to The Herald.)
Logan, Oct. 15.—The Agricultural college football team has arranged for a game with the Montana university eleven, to be played tomorrow afternoon. On the following Wednesday the champions start on their coast trip, and they are going to have a hard siege of it. They meet the University of Washington at Seattle on the 22d and then play four other games with coast teams before returning. All the men are doing fairly well, but they haven't got enough snap and fight about them yet. The squad is the finest one the college has ever had, though, of course, most of the mair egreen. They presented an encouraging spectacle last night when, at the end of practice, thirty-one of them, all big, fine fellows, started out on their half-mile run before going to quarters.

Big Dave Olsen has been in his old place at tackle all week, and has been showing the recruits what line smashing is. Ingersoll, the new find, is developing rapidly into a first-class man, and big Jamison, whom some of the boys guyed with labek, is becoming one of the strong men of the squad. He is not yet 20 years old, but weighs 190 pounds and is fast. He is looked upon as the coming star of the team now. Goff, one of last year's ends, turned up yesterday, but is too late to get in condition for the coast trip.

The Tenth Ward "Enckers" an aggree.

The Tenth Ward "Buckers." an aggregation of football players, whose weight averages 119 pounds, and who carried everything of equal size before them last fall, are out with a challenge. Any ambitious juvenile eleven anxious to buck the "Buckers" can arrange a Sunday game by communicating with Howard Don, 754 East Third South street.

Howard Don has organized a football team, which is to be known as the Elks team, and hones to be able to compete with all the teams in the city in the high school class. The line-up is composed of some of the best lighter amateur material in the city, including such players as Gardner, Romney. Simmons. Blair, Earl Richardson, Hogan, Reynolds, Foster, Ray Don, McMurrin and Chipman. This is practically the team which represented the Lowell school in the grade school league of 1909-91, which won the championship of that season.

Manager Don has already arranged a game with the Ogden High school for Nov. 5. to be played in Salt Lake. Don says if he succeeds in defeating the Junction City lads he will go after the local High school teams with a view of getting the championship in that class.

JERRY M'CARTHY FIGHTS DRAW WITH BURROWS

Spokane. Oct. 14.—Jim Burrows, middle-weight champion of Nova Scotia, and Jerry McCarty, who claims the championship of Washington, fought twenty rounds to a draw before a good sized house tonight. Both men were on their feet and fighting well in the last round. Purrows fought on the aggressive throughout, while McCarty seldom changed from the defensive. Burrows closed McCarty's left eye repeatedly, and hammered his man in the short ribs and kidneys. McCarty played for the neck and stomach throughout. Both men adopted a crouching attitude and fought round after round at close quarters, using short arm jabs, which landed often but without much damage. The majority of the crowd favored Burrows, though no odds were offered. Miles McNally was referee.
